The Lempa River runs through El Salvador,
Honduras, Guatemala, down to the shore.
Bringing fresh water to the people in the towns;
Farmers, Ranchers, everyone around.

Chorus:
They come from the North with their money and their guns
For the gold in the hills where the Lempa River runs.
Marcelo Rivera will never grow old,
Water for life, or is it water for gold;
Water for life, or is it water for gold.
